The Scramble Experience
at the Battle of Britain Memorial,
Capel-le-Ferne,
Kent

The Battle of Britain Memorial, high on Kent's famous white cliffs, offers an exciting glimpse into the lives of the men who kept this country free from invasion in the summer and early autumn of 1940.

While the clifftop Memorial offers a chance for quiet reflection, The Scramble Experience in The Wing, the Trust's modern visitor centre, offers an interactive and immersive experience for all ages.

As well as numerous hands-on challenges and games, the high-tech, multi-media experience has hours of contemporary film and audio footage of the Few, together with a wealth of information, all accessible via modern touch screen technology.

Youngsters can dress up as a fighter pilot in the Experience's own dispersal hut, while families can compete to see who can shoot down the most enemy aircraft from the full-size replica Hurricane cockpit in a realistic video simulation.

At the heart of the experience is a unique, five-minute film specially commissioned for the Trust and revealing a little of the harrowing experience the Few lived through during the Battle of Britain.
